About Joe McPherson

I have a passion for singing and performing country music. My debut CD, Doin' My Thing, was recorded in the heart of country music – Nashville, TN, and features a mix of songs that reflect this passion. The CD was produced by Gary Sadker of Red Ridge Entertainment and recorded at Bayou Recording Studio with some of the best musicians in the music business.

My love of country music can be traced to my childhood growing up in the Fargo and Devil's Lake areas of North Dakota. My dad played the guitar and sang traditional songs of the legendary Hank Williams, Merle Haggard, Lefty Frizzell, and Hank Snow as well as many others and it are these influences that have shaped the vocalist and entertainer I am today. I now enjoy performing cover songs recorded by some my favorite artists such as Merle Haggard, Waylon Jennings, George Strait, Alan Jackson, Toby Keith, Clint Black, Montgomery Gentry, to name a few.

In recent years I have had opportunities to play some great venues which include Winstock Country Music Festival, Jackpot Junction Casino, The Midwest Country Music Theater and the Medina Entertainment Center to name a few. During many of these performances, I have the pleasure of opening for some of Country music's great entertainers such as Tim McGraw, LeeAnn Womack, Bobby Bare, John Conlee, Mel McDaniel, Charlie Pride, John Anderson, Billy Walker, Stonewall Jackson, Tanya Tucker, Joe Nichols, Sammy Kershaw and others. Hope to see you this June at the 2nd annual "Corvettes for a Cause", Welcome Party.

Very best regards,

Joe
